Senator Bruce and the Third-Termer

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 11 .- The Presihim to-day about the rupture between himself and Senator Biuce, which culminated in the speech in the secret session of the Senate yesterday.

President. Owing to the excitement over son-in-law of Mr. Johnson, is of the opinion these matters, it is likely that the invitation | that he was seized with vertigo and fell, as to interview, and the rejection, are amond he had a similar attack, lasting three hours, the embellishments to the event that Bruce | while attending the trials in South Caroliundoubtedly denounced Grant and carpet- na, several years since. baggers bitterly in yesterday's executive

LATER.-It has at length transpired that the President and Senator Bruce are mutuin open session.

SENATE.

Washington, Feb. I1 .- In the Senate. Mr. Johnson, of Virginia, introduced a bill to the Committee on Claims.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11 .-- Numerous petitions for the repeal of the Bankrupt law. and petitions for pensions for Mexican war veterans, were presented. Mr. Bayard called up the joint resolution for counting votes. The President and Vice-President Edmunds wished the matter referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections. After a desultory discussion, Mr. Edmunds moved to amend the concurrent resolution so that it should be a simple resolution instead of a concurrent one, and that the Committee on Privileges and Elections consider the matter, instead of the Committee on Rules, so that it should read : Resolved. That the Committee on Privileges and Elections be and they are hereby instructed to examine and report whether any and what legislation is expedient in regard to the matter considered in the twenty-second joint rule of the last session; adopted.

The Centennial appropriation was resumed. The bill passed; 41 to 50. The folowing Republicans voted nay: Alcorn, Hamilton, Wadleigh and Howe. Democrats voting aye: Bayard, Caperton, Dennis, Jones, Flay, Key, Maxey, McDonald. Randolph and Ransom. A journed to Mon-

Gen, J. T. Morgan, who was appointed by Gov. Houston, under the joint session of the Alabama Legislature, to prosecute the case against Spencer, arrived to-day and presented his credentials to the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections. The Committee will decide next Tuesday upon their course of action. The Committee failed to secure an interview with the President yes-

Messrs. Thurman, Holman, Morrison and others, addressed the caucus last night. The result, it is thought. although not definite, was satisfactory. The question was referred to the committee for consultation, without any instructin beyond that intimated by the speaker. A negative policy will not bill repealing the Potter law passed its third answer. The 1879 resumption bill must be repealed, and in its stead, measures adopted looking to future resumption, to be brought about by tangible and reasonable preliminary causes. The Consultation Committee will report Thursday, to which day the caucus, at midnight, adjourned.

Death of Reverdy Johnson.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 11 .- Reverdy Johnson had argued a case in court and was unusually brilliant; he ate dinner with Governor Carroll whose guest he was, and took one other room to smoke. He was born in 1796.

ANNAPOLIS, Mp., Feb. 11 .- So sudden and un xpected was the death of Reverdy Johnson after his appearance in the State Library and about the State House, while the Legislature was in session, being apparently in full health, that the community has not yet recovered from the shock. Dr. Lewis H. Stifter, State Senator from Frederick, a distinguished physician and the chief in-spector of the Sanitary Commission in the
